The SOA will contain the advice, the basis on which it is given which may have influenced the advice and how Lifespan and your adviser will be remunerated for the advice we give you. If your adviser provides further advice to you, but not in writing, and that further advice is related to the advice provided in a previous SOA, that further advice will be recorded in a Record of Advice (ROA). Who is Lifespan?

Lifespan is a holder of an Australian Financial Services Licence which enables it to act as a financial services provider under the Corporations Act. Not Independent Lifespan and its authorised representatives are not independent in relation to the provision of personal advice. Lifespan operates its own Managed Discretionary Account (MDA) service and receives fees in respect of the MDA service. Lifespan is an investment manager for some Managed Portfolios and receives fees in respect of this activity. Lifespan may also receive commissions from life insurance providers when we recommend life insurance to our clients. A related entity of Lifespan called Omniport Limited is the promoter of the Omniport Wrap Service and the Wealthguard Portfolio Service and receives fees in respect of both wrap services.

Who is responsible for the financial services provided to me?

Your adviser acts on behalf of Lifespan who is responsible for the advice provided to you. However, your adviser may operate separate businesses, and provide other services through those businesses, which are NOT authorised by Lifespan and do NOT involve Lifespan in any way, such as: accounting, auditing, tax return preparation, self-managed super fund compliance and administration, property sales and referrals, and other products and activities. Lifespan is NOT responsible for any advice and services you receive from your adviser that are not authorised by Lifespan. If you are uncertain, you should ask either your adviser or Lifespan Head Office who is responsible for that particular advice, service or transaction.

Does Lifespan have any relationships or associations with product issuers?

Lifespan and Omniport Ltd have the same shareholders. Omniport Ltd is an unlisted public company, which is the sponsor of the Omniport Wrap Service and the promoter of the Wealthguard Portfolio Service.

The Omniport Wrap Service is issued by Avanteos Investments Ltd. The transactional, administrative and custodial systems underlying the Omniport Wrap Service are provided by Avanteos Investments Ltd.

The Wealthguard Portfolio Service is issued and administered by HUB24 Custodial Services Limited who provides the underlying transactional, administrative and custodial systems.

Lifespan has no ownership connections with any other financial product issuers.

If it is in your best interests and appropriate for your needs and objectives, your adviser may recommend the Omniport Wrap Service or the Wealthguard Portfolio Service

How do I provide instructions?

Lifespan advisers will act on your instructions following your acceptance of their recommendations in the SOA. They and we should not act independently of your specific instructions (unless you decide to use Lifespan's MDA service). Instructions you provide should be communicated to your adviser in writing. These instructions should be forwarded in an email, fax or posted letter to your adviser.

Tailored, general and ongoing advice

Lifespan advisers usually provide advice tailored to your individual circumstances and also have the capacity to implement the advice they give, except where this may require the use of other professionals (accountants and lawyers). You may choose to enter into an agreement with your adviser to provide you with both initial advice and ongoing advice. If appropriate, we may also provide general advice only, where you are ultimately responsible for ensuring that this advice is suitable to your particular needs, objectives and financial situation. In this case, you should also obtain any relevant product disclosure statements to assist in this purpose.

Should I transfer investment monies to my adviser's account?

No. Lifespan does not allow advisers to receive your investment funds into their own account or into any Lifespan account. You should only transfer investment funds for a financial product to the approved financial institution that issues the financial product (as specified in the Product Disclosure Statement or similar document). You should never transfer investment funds to any other entity or person.

You should also not sign any blank forms or appoint your adviser as your attorney (or authorised signatory). You should not appoint any other person as your attorney or authorised signatory unless you have received legal advice.

What information should I provide to my adviser?

You will need to provide your adviser with your personal objectives and your current financial situation including details of assets, liabilities, income and living expenses. This can best be accomplished by completing a Lifespan Client Data Form.

The amount and type of information we will require from you depends on what financial services you require.

It is important that you provide us with complete and accurate information about your current personal circumstances and financial situation.

If you choose not to supply the required information or provide us with inaccurate information, the advice you receive may not be appropriate to your needs, objectives and financial situation.

You should read the warnings contained in the SOA, check any assumptions we make and review the basis for our advice carefully before making a decision about whether to proceed with the advice. You should also obtain and read any relevant product disclosure statements prior to applying for a financial product.

How will I pay for the services provided?

Your adviser's specific method of remuneration and fees, including referral fees, are detailed in their Adviser Profile. The exact remuneration and fee details will be disclosed to you in the SOA.

All fees will be payable to Lifespan. If your adviser's remuneration includes commission paid by a product provider, such commission payment will be made to Lifespan. Lifespan retains between 0% and 40% of all commissions and fees we receive. The remainder is passed on to your adviser.

How are any commissions, fees or other benefits calculated for providing the financial services?

The three stages of financial planning are Initial Advice, Implementation and Ongoing Reviews. There is usually a separate fee for each of the three stages. Your adviser's remuneration structure for each advice stage will be found in their Adviser Profile and the dollar value disclosed to you in the SOA.

All commissions are payments made by the insurance product provider and are calculated as a percentage of the premium paid on insurance products. Commissions are of two types: (a) upfront or initial; and (b) ongoing or trail.

Fees can be based on: a percentage of funds invested or funds under advice, hourly rates multiplied by the hours worked, an agreed dollar amount for the value of the specific service being performed, or a combination of these.

The typical ranges of commission and fee rates for investments and insurance products are as follows.

Upfront fees can vary between nil and 5.5% on investment products. Example: $100,000 invested in a wrap service may involve an upfront fee payment of say 3% or $3,000 which could be deducted from your investment account and paid to Lifespan, leaving a net investment of $97,000.

Ongoing fees can be collected by platforms and other product providers and percentage-based fees can be up to 2% pa, but normally in the range of 0.5% to 1.5% pa depending on the size of the portfolio. Example: A portfolio of $300,000 may be subject to an ongoing portfolio review fee of 1% per annum paid quarterly. This would amount to $3,000 per annum.

Upfront commissions can be up to 66% of the premium paid on insurance products.

Ongoing commissions can be up to 33%.

The precise amount of all these commissions and any other fees charged will be disclosed in your SOA.

What should I know about any risks of the investments or investment strategies you recommend to me?

Lifespan advisers may only recommend to you investment products that are researched, analysed and approved by Lifespan. Your adviser should explain any significant risks of investments and financial planning strategies. If the adviser does not do so, you should contact us to explain those risks to you.
